- Hand sanitizer has been placed throughout the library for your use and safety.

- Our inside book drop is unavailable. Please continue to use the outside book drop to return your items.

- All returned items continue to be quarantined for up to five days. No fines will accrue during this time.

We closed our doors on March 16, and we opened for curbside pickup on June 29. We now reopen the doors on July 13. We have been so appreciative for the wonderful thoughts and positive feedback as we slowly get back on our feet. It is heartwarming to know how much the library means to you, and we are excited to welcome you back. Your overwhelming support these last four months means the world to us. We truly have a great community, and we are proud to be a part of it.

Our goal is to not only provide great service to you, but to provide it in a safe and healthy environment. The safety requirements are updated frequently, which means we have to adapt our plans as well. We thank you for your understanding as we navigate this uncharted territory we're all in right now.
