Library and Friends Events

Friends of the

Become a Friend

...to connect with like-minded people who believe that the library enriches the cultural and educational life of the community, and who believe in giving back to their community.

GREAT LIBRARIES
BUILD
GREAT COMMUNITIES

Your membership dollars help support the Library by...

- Funding operational costs of the Book Sales
- Purchasing materials/supplies for special events and participation in community events
- Funding membership in the New York Library Association

Your volunteer time helps support the Library by...

- Sharing information about the Library at community events
- Making Book Sales successful, which provide additional funding for the Library
- Volunteering for library tasks allows the staff more time to interact with patrons
- Providing seasonal decorations and activities enhances the library experience for users, and shows appreciation for the staff

What do the Friends do?

The mission of The Friends of the Victor Farmington Library is to advocate for and support the library, including but not limited to fundraising activities and the donation of our time, talent and assets to promote the welfare and growth of our valuable Victor Farmington Library.

Hold semi-annual Book Sales to:

- Find new homes for gently used books
- Provide books to adults and children at an affordable price
- Generate thousands of dollars to support Library programming and purchases

Enhance the community's awareness and support of the library's programs and services

Provide financial assistance for the Library to purchase library materials and equipment that will augment its services to the community

Advocate for the Library through membership in the New York Library Association
